

Don't be disappointed

Brieve Morison

I think I was too cool
Oh yes I was a fool
I better be moving on
You might hear from me again
If I pick up a pen
But now I've got to travel on

Don't be disappointed baby
Please don't cry
It's not worth crying over at all
Save your tears for something else
Something really big
I'd hate to think you'd used them all

Now watch out for the next one
Might just be the one
But don't move to fast
Might be the wrong one
It's so hard to be sure
Love's absurd and it's obscure
One plus one never answers one

Don't be disappointed baby

Now don't read too many magazines
You'll get the wrong idea
Can't always be put in words
Don't expect no saving grace
You're in the wrong place
I bet you never met anyone
Who ever heard

Don't be disappointed

Don't expect no special kindly glow
From people that don't know
That this time was that bad
I expect that you will find
Someone gentle someone kind
Giving you the best time you've ever had
Don't be disappointed