

Make your heart strong

Brieve Morison

Some things must remain the same
Like hi hello what's your name
And somethings must not change
Like maybe baby what's the name of the game
Make your heart strong make your heart strong make your heart strong

Procrastination is is the thief of time
You can have yours but you can't have mine.
You make your bed well you lie in it
You can lie in mine anytime
Make your heart strong make your heart strong make your heart strong.

You can use my name when you write your book
There's nothing I've done I'm ashamed of LOOK
And you can tell your story to every one you meet
But when I tell mine it'll be complete
Make your heart strong

They say it's an ill wind that blows no-one no good
Who ever told the wind that it should.
If I was a rat leaving a sinking ship
This would be my very last wish

Make your heart strong make your heart strong make your heart strong

Some things must remain the same
Like hi hello what's your name
But some things have to go
To change is not enough it's too damn slow
Make your heart strong make your heart strong make your heart strong.
