

Out of the ordinary

Brieve Morison

Out of the ordinary
Something special
Noticeably different
A golden vessel
Like a bird in the air
She fills a vacant space
And keeps a fire burning
At her place

Out of the blue
Unexpected
I found my sense
Of time
Drastically affected
Like a smile
That changes a sad face
She'll keep a fire burning
At her place

Out of control
Like a river in spate
We just burst the banks
Didn't have no time to wait
On our mad rush
To the ocean's open space
She'll keep a fire burning
At her place

Out of my depth
Drowning in her voice
I don't have to think
About it
There is no other choice
She does not expect a game
Does not require a chase
And she keeps a fire burning
At her place

Out of our heads
Hopelessly in love
Everything is working out
It never felt so good

She's opened every door
That was ever slammed
In my face
And she keeps a fire burning
At her place
