

Sharks in the ocean of love

Brieve Morison

The rain falls on the good and bad alike
Rivers grow and flow courses they must like
Passed lovers in whose watery eyes
Are reflected the stars above
And the river flows on the river flows on
To the sharks in the ocean of love
To the sharks in the ocean of love

People meet attracted by the twinkling lights
Or by the darkest reflections of the pools that they lie by
And they jump over the bank away from the stars above
And the river flows on the river flows on
To the sharks in the ocean of love
To the sharks in the ocean of love

Past whirlpools of passionate desire
And all the affirmation love requires
And they jump over the bank
Away from the stars above
And the river flows on the river flows on
The river flows on
To the sharks in the ocean of love

You and I we've been in the swim
Maybe we will lose and maybe we will win
But when all is said and done
We'd rather see the stars in each others eyes
And let the river flow on let the river flow on
To the sharks in the ocean of love
To the sharks in the ocean of love
They're not us
They're not us.
